ASTONISHED RED MEN. - A band of Indians made a sudden attack on a detachment of our soldiers in the mountains. The soldiers had a mountain howitzer mounted on a mule. Not having time to take it off and put in position, they backed up the mule and let drive at the Indians. The load was so heavy that mule and all went tumbling down the hill toward the envages, who, not understanding that kind of warfare, fled like deers. Afterwards one of them was captured, and when asked why he ran so, replied, "Me big Ingin, not afraid of little guns nor big guns, but when white man load up and fire a whole jackass at Injin, me don't know what to do."-Nashville Press.
